

Newsletter November 2020 #2

Hello again!

Welcome to the second edition of the November Newsletter. We felt it important to share as much as we can with you, and so we will be issuing a fortnightly newsletter instead of monthly. It's been a busy couple of weeks.....

Trowbridge Poppy Appeal

We received a lovely letter from the organiser of the Trowbridge Poppy Appeal, thanking us for raising £204.07 from the sale of poppies and wristbands. Thank you to everyone who purchased them, and to the children who braved the cold to sell them!

Children In Need

On the subject of raising money, we were able to raise £ for Children in Need this year which is amazing. The children came in wearing what makes them happy. They made us happy too!! Outfit of the day went to Grace Neate in Ducklings for her amazing chocolate bar outfit. Joke of the day was "What did the traffic light say to the car?" "Don't look, I'm changing!"

Odd Socks Day

Your really generous donations for the Melksham Foodbank were a great way to start Anti-Bullying week and everyone embraced Odd Socks Day (whether deliberately or by accident!). Mrs Chalk collected the donations and delivered them to the foodbank for us.

Class Dojo

We are so excited about the introduction of the Class Dojo app! It's difficult for you, and for us, that you can't be physically involved with the children's life and learning in school. We know how important that interaction is. So, we are sure that this is going to make a big difference, and we can't wait to get started!

Wellbeing

Many are struggling as this situation continues, and so we will endeavour to share links to events that some of you may find helpful. WPCC Virtual Coffee Morning (Theme: Anxiety) – 2nd December

Their next virtual coffee morning will be on Wednesday 2nd December 2020 at 11.30am, the theme of which is anxiety.

The coffee morning can be accessed from your computer, tablet, or smartphone through the WPCC website www. http://wiltshireparentcarercouncil.co.uk

Pre-Schoolers

Spurgeons Children's Centre offer a number of courses and activities online for parents of 0-5 year olds, including Bookstart, which provides free books and activities for your children. Check out what is available at www.spurgeons.org or give them a call on 01225 719753.

And finally.....

See you in a couple of weeks!!!!!!
